CHAIRPERSON'S FOREWORD

This report contains the Committee's proceedings on the consideration of the Military Veterans Bill (National Assembly Bill No. 4 of 2022) that was read a First Time on Tuesday, 22nd February, 2022, and committed to the Departmental Committee on Defence & Foreign Relations pursuant to Standing Order 127.

The Military Veterans Bill, 2022 sponsored by Hon. Amos Kimunya, MP, Leader of the Majority Party, is a Government-sponsored Bill that seeks to establish a regulatory and institutional framework for the management of military veterans' affairs; for the provision of benefits to military veterans and military veterans' dependants; to establish the Dependants' Education Fund; to establish the Defence Forces Retirement Home.

The Committee called for memoranda from the public pursuant to Article 118(1)(b) of the Constitution and Standing Order 127(3), and received responses from four stakeholders. The Committee further held a meeting with the chief practitioner and consumer of the Bill, the Ministry of Defence, on 1st April, 2022.

The stakeholders proposed certain amendments that have been exhaustively addressed in Part III of this report, with the Committee's final decision reflected therein and in the attached schedule.

On behalf of the Departmental Committee on Defence and Foreign Relations and pursuant to provisions of Standing Order 199 (6), it is my pleasant privilege and honour to present to this House the Report of the Departmental Committee on Defence and Foreign Relations on the Military Veterans Bill, 2022. The Committee is grateful to the offices of the Speaker and Clerk of the National Assembly for the logistical and technical support accorded to it during its sittings. The Committee further wishes to thank all stakeholders who submitted their comments on the Bill. Finally, I wish to express my appreciation to the Honourable Members of the Committee and the Committee Secretariat who made useful contributions towards the preparation and production of this report.

It is my pleasure to report that the Committee has considered the Military Veterans Bill, 2022 and has the honour to report back to the National Assembly with the recommendation that the Bill should be approved with amendments.

B. PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

36. The Committee is required, pursuant to Article 118(1)(b) of the Constitution and Standing Order 127(3), to facilitate public participation on the Bill through an appropriate mechanism including-
- (a) Inviting submission of memoranda;
 - (b) Holding public hearings;
 - (c) Consulting relevant stakeholders in the sector;
 - (d) Consulting experts on technical subjects.
37. The requirement for the Committee to conduct public participation on the Bill is a constitutional imperative flowing from Article 118 of the Constitution which provides that Parliament shall-
- (a) conduct its business in an open manner, and its sittings and those of its committees shall be open to the public; and
 - (b) facilitate public participation and involvement in the legislative and other business of Parliament and its committees.
38. It is important to note that Standing Order 127(4) requires the Chairperson of the Departmental Committee to which a Bill is committed or a Member designated for that purpose by the Committee to present the Committee's report to the House to inform debate within twenty-one calendar days of such committal and upon such presentation, or if the Committee's report is not presented when it becomes due, the Bill shall be ordered to be read a Second Time on such day as the House Business Committee shall, in consultation with the Member or the Committee in charge of the Bill, appoint.

PART III

4.0 PUBLIC PARTICIPATION/ STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT

39. Following call for memoranda from the public through the placement of advertisements in the print media on 24th February, 2022 requesting for comments from the public on the Bill.

40. The Committee received memoranda from the following stakeholders;

- i. Ministry of Defence
- ii. National Gender and Equality Commission
- iii. Mr. Ernest Kinyua Kamau through Lawyer, Miller & Co. Advocates
- iv. Ugunya/Ugunja Veteran Development Group
- v. Creative Industrial Arts Technologists Association of Kenya

41. The stakeholders made submissions as elaborated in the clauses below, with the Committee observations thereunder;

a) Creative Industrial Arts Technologists Association

42. The Creative Industrial Arts Technologists Association proposed for the initiation of technology and business development initiatives to form the specified field of technology acquired from retired members of the security forces.

43. The Committee observed that this is proposal that can be considered once the structures are instituted as it falls with the mandate of the Advisory Committee.

b) Miller and Company advocates instructed by Capt (Rtd) Ernest Kinyua Kamau (20813)

44. The Firm proposed the following:

THAT Section 11(d) and Section 9(e) of the proposed Bill are discriminative as they require one to have completed service to be eligible for the benefits under the Bill.

45. The Committee observed that this is in line with the guiding principles of honouring those who served and made sacrifices to protect the country. Completing service or at least attaining the 10 and 12 years in service for officers and service members respectively distinguishes those entitled to the benefit from those who quit service prematurely.

c) National Gender and Equality Commission

46. The Commission proposed the following:

(a) to define a military veteran as a person who served in the army, air force or navy and has not been dishonourably discharged. The Committee observed that the definition contained in the bill is all encompassing as the armed forces and the Kenya defence Forces is comprised of the three services;

(b) Composition to include representation as stipulated in the Mwongozo to include the parent ministry, department of social protection, faith-based organizations, an elderly veteran and a veteran with disabilities. The Committee observed the following on the above proposals-

- i) the faith element is likely to invite controversy;
- ii) representation among ranks is the established practice which should be maintained; and
- iii) the Department of Veteran Affairs is established under the Defence Council and is not a state corporation.

(c) Delete establishment of Veteran's Education fund as it does not meet the thresholds stipulated in the PFMA Act. The Committee observed the following—

- i) To operationalize the fund, the Act has enabled the Defence Council to make regulations to attain its objects; and
- ii) MDAs are to co-operate with Veterans affairs to realize attainment of the benefit which includes National Treasury promulgating regulations under the PFMA.

(d) Define a retirement home, consider establishing more than one centre for the retirees to access and include the provision on the source of funds. The Committee observed that this can be considered once the structures are duly established.

47. Following deliberations with the Ministry of Defence and taking into consideration memoranda from the various stakeholders, the Committee proposed the following amendments to the Bill with justifications in the following manner—

The agenda item was deferred to the next sitting.

MIN. NO.NA/DDC.DFR/2022/063: SUBMISSION BY THE CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE SECRETARY, MINISTRY OF DEFENCE ON THE MILITARY VETERANS BILL, 2022

Hon. Peter Odoyo the Chief Administrative Secretary at the Ministry of Defence informed the Committee that the objective of the Bill was to promote the welfare of retired military personnel by enabling them transition from military to citizens. He welcomed the Lt Gen. (Rtd) Humphrey Njoroge who provided a background of the necessity of the Bill by making the following submission regarding the Military Veterans Bill, 2022;-

- i) Highly trained retirees who can still contribute to achievement of National Security Strategy objectives that entails a balanced orchestration of the military, diplomatic and economic instruments of power are relegated to activities such as farming yet they are still capable of being absorbed into both the private and public sectors to offer their expertise;
- ii) Passing of the bill will be a game changer that will provide the legal and institutional framework to structure utilization of highly skilled veterans in transforming Kenya's economy;
- iii) It's important that such personnel with relevant skills to be reabsorbed and considered for government openings to utilize the acquired skills once they retire;
- iv) That the Bill would be important towards addressing the welfare of retired military personnel;
- v) The pension currently paid to retired Generals who retired during president Moi's time was quite low i.e. the retired Gen. Musumba is paid a monthly pension of Kshs. 7,000;
- vi) That the pension of retirees needs to be reviewed since private soldiers who are retiring currently are receiving a monthly pension of over Kshs. 30,000.
- vii) The guiding principle of the Bill is honoring the sacrifices made by military veterans during military service and their role in defense of the Republic of Kenya.
- viii) The Bill will accord special benefits to military veterans that suffer physical or mental disability from their service to the Country;
- ix) Further the Bill will provide a smooth and seamless transition from military service to civilian life by restoring the capability of those with disabilities to the greatest extent possible thereby improving their quality of life.
- x) The Bill does not entitle a person defined as a military veteran under the Bill or that person's dependant to any benefit conferred under the Bill or any other written law merely on the ground of such definition.

Members Observations

- i) Definition of "Child" in the Bill deviates from the definition in the Children Act.
- ii) A private entity needs to be defined in the Bill.
- iii) Military veterans with specialized skills can be absorbed in the private sector once they retire. The Committee noted that Kenya is a developing Country with limited employment opportunities in the private sector with the option of also engaging them on non-monetary and part time basis;
- iv) The Committee observed that retirement homes can create dependency hence discouraging personal investments by the Military personnel, Further, the Committee noted that the practice was considered alienating and depressing as well as inconsistent with the social culture of family and community;
- v) Modalities of establishing an education fund was not clear and whether the fund is to be financed by tax payers;
- vi) The Committee noted that the Bill should be structured in a manner that it is not depicted as a money bill and accordingly restructured so that it highlights the organization and the internal affairs of veterans;
- vii) The committee noted that a strong justification be provided to differentiate the nature of duty in the defense forces from other agencies such as the police.

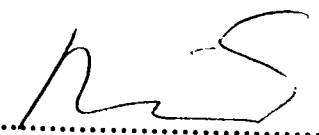

Committee Recommendations

- i) Reconcile definition of "Child" with the Children's Act. Justification: The bill should be amended to align to the definition in the Children's Act; "child" means a child of a Kenya Military Veteran under the age of 18 years.
- ii) Use of the term 'private entity' in clause 7 (3) needs to be defined in the interpretations section to avoid ambiguities. Justification: The Proposed definition to be considered for adoption means any person or private group, organization, proprietorship, partnership, trust, cooperative, association, corporation, or other commercial or non-profit entity duly established and/or registered under applicable laws in Kenya or in other jurisdictions that accept to co-operate and voluntarily fund any object and/or activity envisages under this Act including an officer, employee, or agent thereof.
- iii) The reference to Government Ministries, Departments and Agencies involved with military veterans shall co-operate with the Ministry responsible for veterans' matter needs to be redrafted Justification: so that the bill does not appear to legislating on existing laws that confer powers and functions to other entities. The Clauses should therefore be redrafted.
- iv) Clause 21 (1) (a) on the Education fund appears to suggest fees will be paid for serving personnel's children, Justification: It was agreed that the clause be redrafted to cater for only veterans' children;
- v) In regards to excluding entitlement to benefits for self-inflicted physical and mental disability, Justification: It was resolved that the provision be maintained to cater for mischief of personnel who self-inflict injuries as a result of indiscipline or to avoid being deployed or assigned duty. Further, for cases where drug and substance abuse is occasioned by defiance despite interventions.
- vi) Retirement homes should be through contributions by serving military personnel and other staff welfare schemes. They should not overburden the tax payers.
- vii) A private entity should be clearly defined in the bill.

Dear Sir,

RE: PUBLIC PARTICIPATION (SUBMISSION OF MEMORANDA) TO THE

DEPARTMENTAL COMMITTEE ON LABOUR AND SOCIAL WELFARE AND THAT ON DEFENSE AND FOREIGN RELATIONS

We are instructed to write to you by our client Ernest Kinyua Kamau, Service Number 20813, Rank: Captain (retired) as follows: -

We refer to the notice dated 24th February 2022 in the national newspaper (copy attached) and wish to humbly present our client's views and recommendations as part of public participation as regards the: - Military Veterans Bill (National Assembly Bill No. 4 of 2022).

Our client has perused the said bill and the same is a noble idea. He however wants to bring your attention to page 75, Part 11 6 (1) (d) and (e) which states:

A Kenyan Citizen shall be regarded as a military veteran for the purposes of this Act if that Kenyan Citizen: -

- d) Has completed service in the Armed Forces or Kenya Defense Forces;
- e) Receives a pension from the Armed Forces or Kenya Defense Forces;

Our client is of the humble view that Sections (d) and (e) are discriminatory in as far as they imply that you must serve to the end of your service or have reached retirement age with a pension in order to qualify as a veteran.

Section 6 (2) states:

Despite Subsection (1) a person who has discharged or retired from the Armed Forces or Kenya Defense Forces on medical grounds shall, whether or not that person receives a pension, be regarded as a military veteran.

Section 6 (2) above seems to imply that the only way one can be a veteran is either through medical discharge, and if not that then Part II Section 6 (1) (d), (e) and (f) then apply.

The problem with this is that it discriminates against those who retire or terminate and are not on pension, and were not dishonourably discharged.

Serving military officers do also retire or terminate on compassionate grounds or voluntarily and this seems to have been omitted from the draft bill herein.

Page 75, Section 6 Part 11 (1) (d) and (e) need to be deleted.

We look forward to a favorable consideration of our client's instructions.

additional notes by the Commission for noting

On June 1st, 2019, The President of Kenya indicated in his official Madaraka Day speech that the country was facing a mental health crisis, and ordered the Ministry of Health to implement programs and policies to address the problem. A Cabinet meeting held on 21st November, 2019, went further and directed the formation of a Mental Health Taskforce to address the mental health concerns of Kenyans and help guide the government on resource allocation for mental health. On December 11th, the Taskforce was inaugurated and given 80 days in which to complete the work and the report attached contains submissions and recommendations on disciplined forces: Taskforce on Mental Health Report 16_lowres.pdf. The armed forces made their presentations and it was clear that they have specific needs that arise from the nature of their work.

More specifically, the participants in the armed forces wanted decriminalization of suicide, policy changes within the forces and more attention paid to mental health awareness. They expressed concern about the high number of persons with mental health conditions in the midst due to the nature of their work.

The Taskforce heard that officers who die by suicide are discharged dishonorably and hence their families do not get any compensation or suffering twice.

Some of the key recommendations by the task force

- a. The different security service institutions must provide psychological services for both managers and staff at disciplinary institutions.
- b. The institutions should establish regular staff support sessions on mental health in workplaces for the officers.
- c. The government through the Ministry of Health should mainstream mental health in all sectors including the disciplinary forces.

As you review this Bill, we invite you to consider the above summary.

TO CLERK OF THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY,

P.O BOX, 41842-00100

NAIROBI.

Dear Sir/Madam

REF: MILITARY VETERANS BILL 2022 (NATIONAL ASSEMBLY BILL 04 2022).

We the Ugenya/Ugunja veteran group do hereby support the bill fully, with our request or prayer on the following.

1. PENSION
 - a. If an officer or service member retires in the year 2022 and earns a given sum in his/her pension in comparison to the one who retires in the year 2004, the difference of margin in pension paid creates a social/economic impact.
 - Case study; senior private who retired in the year 2003 in comparison to the one retiring in the year 2022 has a big difference in their pension dues.
 - To address this issue we need to bring them to the same level in line with the current retiring senior private.
 - b. Spouse as a veteran;
 - Spouse has administrative responsibility including children.
 - Spouse as an administrator of the late veterans estate, he/she should receive the pensions of the late veteran's pension till his or her demise.
2. DEFMIS
 - a. Outpatient cases- we request for the waiver of 25% on the outpatient services.
 - b. Inpatient cases- we request for consideration of a veterans to be admitted to the private wing as in contrast to admission in general wards.
 - Veterans should be accorded services of private wing on those accredited hospitals on admission.
 - Case study; comparatively with the Teachers Service Commission who provides for their members private facilities on admission in contrary to the veterans.

3. LAST RESPECT.

We request the DEFMIS to cater for funerals services for the departed veterans eg, Coffin, Hearse etc.

Yours faithfully,

TOM JUMA OTIENO

SECRETARY UGENYA UGUNJA VETERANS GROUP.

WORK IS THE FOUNDATION OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT

Any nation's most priceless resource is its human, potential. Economic wealth and national security are all derived' from the freedom of people to serve and to grow, working using individual talents to work at an occupation that is fulfilling and productive. The development of the human potential and social and economic wealth all center around a concept of work.

Strengths Arising From Military Experiences

Military experiences has provided veterans with training and work experience that has been used by countries to advance their Technology and Business Development activities. The Government can use the already acquired Technology skills from the retired veterans of the Defense Forces for national industrialization process.

Some of the strengths that many veterans have acquired and used in the uniformed services are:

1. Leadership Training: The military trains people to accept and discharge responsibility for other people, for activities, for resources, and for one's own behavior. This training includes setting an example, giving carefully considered directions, inspiring leadership capabilities in others, and continually motivating other personnel in the group.

2.Ability to Work as a Team Member and as a Team Leader: Essential to the military experience is the ability to work as a member of a team. Almost all military activity is performed with the assistance, coordination and awareness of other persons or other units. Many military personnel serve as team leaders where they have analyzed situations and options, made appropriate decisions, given directions, followed through with a viable plan, and accepted responsibility for the outcome.

3.Ability to Get Along with and Work with All Types of People: The veterans attracts all types of Technologists regardless of race, gender, economic status, age, religion, attitude, intelligence, or physical conditions. In the Service, military personnel have worked for and with people of all types of backgrounds, attitudes and characteristics. This experience has prepared veterans and their families to work with all types of people on a continuing basis.

4.Ability to Work Under Pressure and to Meet Deadlines: One definite characteristic of the military service is that service members must perform. They must do their job, do it right the first time and do it in a timely manner. They are continuously setting priorities, meeting schedules and accomplishing their missions. Pressure and stress are built into this, but service members are taught how to deal with all these factors in a positive and effective manner. They enjoy working together

5.Ability to Give and Follow Directions: People in the military know how to work under supervision and can relate and respond favorably to others. They understand accountability for their actions and for their subordinates' actions. They also understand and use discipline in their lives and when dealing with others. They have learned to respect and accept legitimate authority.

6. Drug Free: With an honorable discharge, service members are certified drug free and are able to create a drug free nation by creating Creative Industrial Arts Exhibition Demonstration Centers in every county. Kenyans will view this as a distinct advantage.

7. Systematic Planning and Organization: Most military operations require thorough planning and workload management. Carefully considered objectives, strengths and limitations of other people, resources, time schedules, supplies, logistics, and various other factors are always considered. Organization, evaluation and adjustment are continuously being assessed. The ability to participate, direct or establish systematic planning is highly valued in business.

8. Change Environment: Military has ability to change any environment to be conducive for habitation. They can wasteland land into creative recreational parks.

9. Emphasis on Safety: Military safety training is among the best in the world. Service members understand the considerable cost in lives, property and objectives when safety is ignored. Both the control and the emphasis on safety are valued in the civilian work force.

10. Familiarity with Records and Personnel Administration: Service members are familiar with the necessity of keeping accurate records and completing all paperwork. There is always the requirement for accountability. Service members are also familiar with all facets of personnel administration.

11. Ability to Conform to Rules and Structure: In any large organization, and especially the military, there must be rules and structure to avoid chaos and internal breakdown. Individuals in the service have learned and followed rules every day in their working environment. While in this environment, they have also learned loyalty to their units and their leaders. Companies always value employees who will be "company players" and team members that follow "the rules" of the organization.

12. Flexibility and Adaptability: All individuals in the service have learned to be flexible and adaptable to meet the constantly changing needs of any situation and mission. Last minute changes are not uncommon in any military or civilian working environment. Also based on their military background, former soldiers are able to adapt quickly to physical and safety demands.

13. Self-Direction: Many service members understand difficult and often complex issues and solve these issues or problems on the spot without step-by-step guidance from above.

14. Educated: All military soldiers have at least a K.S.C.E. and the majority of them have high school diplomas. Many have attended college to further their education.

15. Initiative: Many military personnel have the ability to originate a plan of action or task to answer and solve many unusual problems regarding supplies, logistics, resources and transportation.

16. Work Habits: People in the military stay and finish their projects and are known and are recognized for completing their missions in a timely fashion and in an effective, efficient manner. These work habits are a definite result of social maturity, integrity, determination and self-confidence that they have learned, earned and experienced in their military service. Their military background has instilled pride, enthusiasm and perseverance for their work. This constitutes their eligibility and recognition for promotion.

17. Standards of Quality and Commitment to Excellence: Service personnel are continually striving to attain and surpass their standards of quality for themselves and their units. These standards of quality are meeting their unit's mission, training standards, physical requirements and educational goals. There is a commitment to excellence in all of these fields.

18. Global Outlook: Many people in the military have been stationed and served their country in various locations around the world. This residency and international experience have broadened their outlooks in regards to customs, economies, languages and cultures of other countries.

19. Client and Service-Oriented: Many military personnel are in the service industry. Their jobs are to facilitate, explain and expedite their patrons and clients needs, wants and actions, such as administrative, medical, dental, postal, financial and recreational.

20. Concerned About the Community and Family

Environment: Service personnel have a vested interest in their areas where they reside. Many are committed to making their locations a better place to live. They are dedicated to the quality of life for their family members and their fellow residents. They participate and volunteer in youth sports, scouting activities, family and unit outings, area clean-up days, seasonal and unit parties and gatherings, and developmental programs. They are able to make Industrial Arts Exhibition Demonstration and Recreational Centers within our 47 counties

21. Specialized Advanced Training: All service personnel receive advanced training in their fields. Their career fields designate a specialized focus and skill building for their individual jobs. Advanced training and cross-referenced training can be in the computerized, financial, medical, engineering, administrative, personnel, technical, mechanical, and security fields. This training can be completed in the classroom, in the office, on the location, in the laboratory, or on the job.

22. Charging and discharging skills: Many young people admire military on performing art drills parade. The military are well charged with creativity skills and are able to discharge these skills to the apprentices throughout the country as they enjoy their retirement years.

31 And he hath filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship;

32 And to devise curious works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,

33 And in the cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of wood, to make any manner of cunning work. 34 And he hath put in his heart that he may teach, both he, and Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan.

35 Them hath he filled with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of work, of the engraver, and of the cunning workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of them that do any work, and of those that devise cunning work.

It is well understood from historical background of our country that: Service men has continued to retire from active service to civilian life. With no employment to sustain the life after retirement.

The veterans has continued to suffer the loneliness of lack of life rejuvenating activities that are enjoyable and fulfilling in the new civilian life. There many family breakdown leading to some committing suicide

CREATIVE THINKING

Creative thinking is the ability to consider something in a new way. It might be a new approach to a problem, a resolution to a conflict between employees, or a new result from a data set. Employers in all industries want employees who can think creatively and bring new perspectives to the workplace.

When you think creatively, you may find it easier to apply your imagination to everyday scenarios. This can help you come up with unique solutions to the challenges you may face at work. Creative minds play with information instead of just storing it. Instead of simply accepting ideas, they question them, build on them and apply them to their lives.

Creative thinking : Is a skill which lets you consider things from a fresh perspective and different angles. It's an inventive thought process which results in surprising conclusions and new ways of doing things. Creative thinking can be aided by brainstorming or lateral thinking to generate ideas. Examples of Creative Thinking Skills. How does a creative person work on a project? When working on a project, creative people tend to exhibit determination and doggedness. They will work for hours on something, often staying up late into the night until they are satisfied with their work.

President Kenyatta was on a mission to recapture his lost support and for him, his scorecard was his primary weapon.

"I took up the role of doing what can help Kenyans. Despite my tribulations, there is no President that has delivered more than me," he said. Along the Tagwa Road snaking through Mt Kenya Forest in Sa-

At the luxurious Sagana Lodge, hundreds of caterers had been deployed with the mission to keep the delegates refreshed and a battery of local benga and gospel musicians kept the crowd entertained.
