1.0 CHAIRPERSON'S FOREWORD

In exercise of powers conferred by section 27 (2) (B), 34 (6B) and 109 of the Elections Act, 2011 as amended in the year 2016 and 2017 and Article 88 (4) (d) of the constitution of Kenya, IEBC was required to make the Elections (Party Primaries and Party Lists) Regulations.

The making of these Regulations is premised on the Elections Act, No. 24 of 2011 as amended vide the Election Laws (Amendment) Act No. 36 of 2016 and the Elections Laws (Amendment) Act No. 1 of 2017. The purpose of the Regulations is to provide mechanisms, rules and procedures for ensuring the conduct of free and fair party primaries.

Section 109 (3) of the Elections Act, 2011 as amended requires IEBC to first submit to the National Assembly draft Regulations for approval before publication and that the approval should be granted at least four (4) months preceding a general election. Section 109 (4) further requires IEBC to publish the draft regulations in the Kenya Gazette after approval by the House not later than sixty days prior to the date of a general election.

IEBC submitted the draft Regulations to the House on 13th February, 2017. The Committee deliberated on the regulations with the Commission at sittings held on 20th and 21st February, 2017 at the Serena Beach Resort and Spa in Mombasa and on 13th and 14th March, 2017 at PrideInn Paradise Hotel in Mombasa.

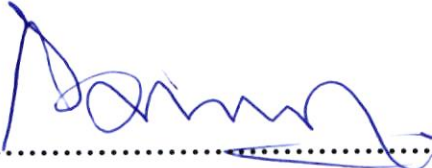

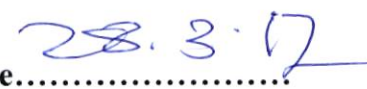

It should be noted that regulation making process is through delegated authority by the National Assembly and cannot be usurped by the delegating authority. The role of the Committee therefore in the scrutiny of Regulations is to ensure that they conform to the constitution of Kenya, the Statutory Instruments Act, the National Assembly Standing Orders and all other legal laws, rules and regulations in force in Kenya before reporting to the House. For instance, the National Assembly Standing Orders require that Regulations should not be in conflict with provisions of the constitution of Kenya and the Act pursuant to which they are made, should not infringe on fundamental rights and freedoms of the public and should not directly or indirectly bar the jurisdiction of the courts amongst other requirements.

Following the scrutiny, amendments were agreed on and are part and parcel of the final draft Regulations which form part of this report for approval by the House for publication by the regulation making authority.

The Committee considered and adopted its report at a sitting held 28th March, 2017 in the Members' Lounge, Main Parliament Building. There was no dissenting voice to the adoption. Minutes of sittings of the Committee as well list of Members present during adoption are annexed hereto as appendices 1 and 2.

The Committee wishes to express gratitude to the Hon. Speaker for the support and direction his office has accorded Committees in the discharge of their mandate. The Committee also wishes to record its appreciation to office of the Clerk of the National Assembly and the Directorates of Committees and Legal Services for providing technical support which was vital in the execution of its mandate and subsequent production of this report.

On behalf of the Committee on Delegated Legislation, and pursuant to Standing Order No. 199, it is my pleasure and duty to present to the House the Committee's report on the final draft Elections (Party Primaries and Party Lists) Regulations, 2017 for debate and approval by the House for publication.

Signed..........Date.....

HON WILLIAM CHEPTUMO, M.P.
CHAIRPERSON, SELECT COMMITTEE ON DELEGATED LEGISLATION

4.0 INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND INFORMATION

4.1 Making of the Regulations and Committal to the Select Committee on Delegated Legislation

Article 88 (4) (d) of the Constitution of Kenya requires IEBC to regulate the process by which parties nominate candidates for elections while section 31 of the Elections Act stipulates how political parties nominate candidates for elections. The Regulations are made pursuant to sections 27 (2B), 34 (6B) and 109 of the Elections Act

Section 88 (4) (d) of the Constitution of Kenya states as follows:-

“(4) The Commission is responsible for conducting or supervising referenda and elections to any elective body or office established by this constitution, and any other elections as prescribed by an Act of Parliament and, in particular for:-

(d) the regulation of the process by which parties nominate candidates for elections”

Section 27 (2B) of the Elections Act states as follows:-

“For purposes of sub section (2A), the Commission shall, by notice in the Gazette issue Regulations prescribing guidelines to be complied with and the process by which political parties nominate candidates for nomination in accordance with Article 88(4) (d) of the Constitution failing which the rules shall become void”

Section 34 (6B) provides as follows:-

“For purposes of sub section (6A), the Commission may, by notice in the gazette, issue regulations prescribing guidelines to be complies with in the preparation of party lists”

Section 109 (3) and (4) state as follows:-

“(3) The power to make regulations shall be exercised only after a draft of the proposed regulations has been approved by the National Assembly, at least four months preceding a general election:

Provided that this applies to the first general election under this Act.

(4) The Commission shall publish in the Gazette, not later than sixty days prior to the date of the general election, the regulations approved by the National Assembly under subsection (3)”

4.2. Legislative context and policy background of the Regulations

Following the enactment of the Election Laws (Amendment) Act, No. 36 of 2016 and the Election Laws (Amendment) Act No. 1 of 2017, sections 27 (2B) and 34 (6B) of the Act require IEBC to:-

- (i) Prescribe regulations and guidelines for the conduct of party primaries and preparation of party lists;
- (ii) Conduct and supervise the nomination of candidates by political parties on request. Where there are multiple requests, to conduct the nomination of candidates for presidential, parliamentary, and county elections on the same day, at the same polling stations and in difference streams for each participating political party.

The objective of the recent amendments to electoral laws was to improve the electoral systems and processes so as to ensure that the August, 2017 general elections are free, fair and administered in an impartial, efficient, simple, accurate, verifiable, secure, accountable and transparent manner. The Regulations fulfill this policy objective by prescribing the procedures for the conduct of party primaries and ensuring that political parties' members are informed of relevant events leading to party primaries.

The Regulations were accompanied an explanatory memorandum as required by section 6 of the Statutory Instruments Act, 2013.

5.0 CONSIDERATION OF THE REGULATIONS

The Committee considered these Regulations at sittings held on 20th and 21st February, 2017 at Serena Beach Resort and Spa in Mombasa and again on 13th and 14th March, 2017 at PrideInn Paradise in Mombasa.

It should be noted that regulation making process is effected through delegated authority by the National Assembly and the Assembly cannot take away this authority from the regulation making authority. In this regard, the role of the Committee in the scrutiny is to ensure that the Regulations conform to the constitution of Kenya, the Statutory Instruments and the parent Acts, the National Assembly Standing Orders and all other legal laws in force in Kenya before reporting to the House.

Having therefore scrutinized the draft Regulations, the final draft Regulations are as follows:-

The sitting commenced with a word of prayer from Hon. Eusilah Jepkosgei followed by self introduction. The main agenda item was consideration of draft Elections related Regulations made by the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission (IEBC).

MIN No. DL/138/2017: MEETING WITH THE INDEPENDENT ELECTORAL AND BOUNDARIES COMMISSION (IEBC) TO CONSIDER THE DRAFT ELECTIONS (TECHNOLOGY) REGULATIONS, 2016

The Chairperson welcomed the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission (IEBC) team to the meeting and briefed them on the Committee’s mandate. He requested them to urgently forward to the House all pending Regulations for scrutiny and approval in view of the prescribed statutory timelines before the general elections in August, 2017. The CEO and his team thanked the Committee for the invite and appreciated the urgent need for enactment of the Regulations under discussion.

The Committee considered the draft Elections (Technology) Regulations, 2016 and recommended as follows:-

Part I

- (I) The Committee expressed concern about the definition of the word “Audit” in Regulation 2: The Committee recommended that the words “or an examination of the internal controls within information technology systems and infrastructure” be deleted to avoid repetition;

(II)The Committee recommended that the words “integrated election” be included in Regulation 2 as captured in the parent Act.

The Committee observed that under Regulation 3 (2) consultation with stakeholders was not captured in the content. The Committee therefore recommended that “requirement analysis” be done in consultation with stakeholders including the Political Parties.
