CHAIRPERSON'S FOREWORD

Pursuant to Article 155(3)(a) of the Constitution as read together with Section 47(3) of the Public Service Commission Act (No. 10 of 2017) and Section 5 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, (No. 33 of 2011), His Excellency the President nominated Prof. Fatuma N. Chege, PhD., for appointment to the position of Principal Secretary for the newly established State Department for Implementation of Curriculum Reforms.

The nomination was conveyed to the Speaker of the National Assembly on 18th March, 2021. In keeping with the requirements of Standing Order 42(2), upon the resumption of the House on Tuesday, 23rd March, 2021, the Speaker of the National Assembly conveyed the message from H.E. the President to the House and referred the vetting of the nominee to the Departmental Committee on Education and Research as provided for under the Constitution, the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act (No. 33 of 2011) (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") and the National Assembly Standing Orders (hereinafter referred to as "Standing Orders").

The name of the nominee together with her curriculum vitae and testimonials were referred to the Departmental Committee on Education for vetting and reporting to the House within twenty-eight (28) days in accordance with the provisions of Standing Order 45 and Section 8 of the of the Act.

In compliance with Section 6(9) of the Act, the Clerk of the National Assembly placed an advertisement in the print media on Thursday, 25th March, 2021. The Clerk invited the public to submit memoranda by way of written statements on oath (affidavits) on the suitability of the nominee. The advertisement indicated that the submissions were to be received by Wednesday, 31st March, 2021 at 5.00 pm. By close of the deadline, the Committee had not received any submission in support or in contention on the suitability of the nominee for appointment as the Principal Secretary, State Department for Implementation of Curriculum Reforms.

Further, in fulfilment of the provisions of Article 118(1)(b) of the Constitution, Section 6(4) of the Act and Standing Order 45(3), the Clerk of the National Assembly on Thursday, 25th March, 2021 placed an advertisement in the print media notifying the public that the Departmental Committee on Education and Research was scheduled to conduct the approval hearing of the nominee on Thursday, 1st April, 2021 from 10.00 am.

Section 6(7) of the Act provides that an approval hearing shall focus on a candidate's academic credentials, professional training and experience, personal integrity and background. To fulfill the requirement on personal integrity, the Clerk wrote to the Kenya Revenue Authority, the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission, the Registrar of Political Parties and the Higher Education Loans Board to ascertain the nominee's good standing with the said government institutions. The nominee was also required to submit clearance certificates from the said institutions on the date of the approval hearing.

The nominee appeared before the Committee on Thursday, 1st April, 2021 for the approval hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution, the Act and the National Assembly Standing Orders on her suitability or otherwise for appointment to the position of Principal Secretary for the State Department for Implementation of Curriculum Reforms.

Having considered the nominee's curriculum vitae, filled Questionnaire and the oral submissions during the approval hearing, the Committee made the findings and observations contained in this report.

May I take this opportunity to thank all the Members of the Committee for their valuable contributions during the approval hearing and deliberations during the writing of this report. I also take this opportunity to thank the Offices of the Speaker and the Clerk of the National Assembly for the logistical support accorded to the Committee during the exercise.

On behalf of the Departmental Committee on Education and Research and pursuant to Section 8(1) and (2) of the Act and the provisions of Standing Orders 45(4) and 199(6), it is now my singular duty and privilege to present to the House, the Report of the Departmental Committee on Education and Research on the Vetting of Prof. Fatuma N. Chege for appointment to the position of Principal Secretary in the State Department for Implementation of Curriculum Reforms in the Ministry of Education.

53. The nominee has no immediate associations that are likely to present potential conflict of interest when she assumes the position.

RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS POSED BY THE COMMITTEE ON SPECIFIC TOPICS

54. The nominee also responded to several questions during the vetting as follows:

5.0 On how her qualifications and experience would make her suitable to head the State Department for Implementation of Curriculum Reforms, considering that she has mostly been a scholar with no previous training in curriculum development and implementation

55. While acknowledging that she has had no previous experience in curriculum development and implementation outside a learning institution, the nominee maintained that having been a teacher, lecturer and university professor with wide experience in teaching, one of her core duties has been development and implementation of curriculum in the learning institutions. She added that, in her undergraduate studies she was trained in curriculum development which is a mandatory course for all teacher trainees.

56. The nominee cited her rich educational background and practical experience in education sector as her asset if the House approves her for appointment. Having been the chair of the Taskforce on implementation of Competency Based Curriculum, the position provided her with insights on the challenges impeding smooth implementation of the new curriculum in its initial stages and ways of addressing the challenges.
57. She added that, if appointed as the Principal Secretary for the new State Department she will collaborate and create synergies with all stakeholders in the sector to ensure effective implementation of the new curriculum.

5.1 On mandate of the new State Department

58. The nominee informed the Committee that in her view, the mandate of new State Department would be to facilitate implementation of the new curriculum and transform the education system to equip learners with knowledge, skills and attitudes in various fields of study to make them responsible citizens.
59. The State Department is further expected to address the challenges of transition at different levels of education, infrastructural challenges, learning and teaching resources as well as formulate legal and policy reforms necessary to facilitate successful implementation of new curriculum.

5.2 On overlap of the mandates of the new State Department and that of the Kenya Institute for Curriculum Development (KICD) and how the two should work together

60. The nominee responded that the role of the new State Department will be to foster effective implementation of curriculum reforms. On the other hand, the role of KICD, being an institution within the Ministry of Education is to advise the Government on matters pertaining to curriculum development and to develop, review, approve programs, curricula and curriculum support materials. The two therefore have distinct but complementary mandates rather than overlap.
61. The nominee added that if approved and appointed to the position she has been nominated to, she will embrace and encourage a cordial working relationship between the State Department and agencies within and outside the Department.

5.3 On key targets within the first three months in office

62. The nominee submitted that if appointed to the position, she will endeavour to achieve the following targets within her first three months of appointment: -

- (i) Establish clear and functional structures for the State Department that are necessary to achieve its mandate.
- (ii) Increased sensitization and collaboration amongst all stakeholders critical to the success of implementation of the new curriculum.
- (iii) Demystify any misconceptions about CBC.
- (iv) Formulate policies and guidelines to support curriculum reforms, for instance a policy that will guide transition from one level to another.
- (v) Undertake audit of human resource and infrastructure to identify the gaps and means of addressing the gaps.

5.4 On her medium/long term goals for the State Department

63. The nominee informed the Committee that if appointed to the position of Principal Secretary for State Department for Implementation of Curriculum Reforms, she will advocate for implementation of the recommendations of the Taskforce on Competency-Based Curriculum which she chaired, which amongst others include: -

- (i) Establishing a comprehensive monitoring and evaluation mechanism within the State Department that will facilitate tracking of implementation of the new curriculum and incorporate timely interventions where necessary;
- (ii) Strengthening of Standards and Quality Assurance function to ensure that Competency Based Curriculum is implemented with fidelity to its aspirations;
- (iii) Collaborating with all relevant institutions to enhance assessment and education programmes for all learners with special needs and disabilities, including the gifted and talented children;
- (iv) Working with the Teachers Service Commission to ensure that all teachers are fully trained and skilled on implementation of the Competency Based Curriculum;
- (v) Working with all stakeholders in the sector and government ministries to ensure that the new curriculum reforms are smoothly and systematically rolled out at all levels of education.

5.5 On the role of the new State Department in achieving Vision 2030 Development Agenda

64. The nominee noted that implementation of the new curriculum reinforces Prof. Odhiambo's Task Force Report that recommended realignment of education system to the Constitution 2010, and Vision 2030.

65. That competency-based curriculum places more emphasis on science, innovation and technology as a path to achieve vision 2030 development agenda. It focuses on nurturing learners' potentials to produce learners with relevant competences and skills to accelerate realization of vision 2030.

66. She further added the competencies and skills acquired by learners will help in development of the country and improvement of quality of life beyond the year 2030.

5.6 On Leadership and Integrity of the Nominee in her previous and current public office

67. The nominee informed the Committee that she has had along public service career including nearly 30 years teaching in the University and 2 years as Deputy Vice Chancellor. During this period of her duty, no integrity issues have ever been raised regarding her conduct in public office.
68. That she conducted duties of her office in a manner to maintain and uphold public confidence in the integrity of the office. That public trust and service has been her driving force.
69. In the performance of her duties, the nominee stated that she has carried out the duties of any particular office she held with utmost professionalism, honesty and in an accountable manner.
70. Further as a public officer she has not used the office to unlawfully or wrongfully enrich herself or any other person.

5.7 On her Strategy to confront corruption

71. Citing that she is a beneficiary of free service from well-wishers, the nominee submitted that if appointed to the position she has been nominated to, as a State officer she shall not use the office to unlawfully influence or acquire of property.
72. She will observe ethical and moral standards in the conduct of duties relating to the office and would not hold nor engage in activities that amount to abuse of office.
73. That she would report any acts of corruption and unethical behaviour to relevant authorities for investigation and she would be ready to give evidence in case of investigation.

5.8 On the Principle of Separation of powers and Responsiveness to Oversight Institutions

74. Noting that separation of powers is a principle to prevent different arms of government from encroaching into each other's jurisdiction, the nominee observed that the principle helps to create checks and balances within the different arms.
75. If appointed she will cultivate a cordial working relationship with oversight institutions such as Parliament, the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission (EACC), the office of the Auditor General amongst others and would respect and honour parliamentary invitations and provide any information as may be required.

5.9 On Potential Conflict of Interest

76. The nominee reiterated that she does not foresee any personal or financial arrangements that are likely to present potential conflicts of interest if and when she assumes the position she has been nominated to.

77. To her serving in a public office would be an opportunity to serve the country to bring transformation and give back to the society, herself being a product charitable service.

5.10 On Management of Public Resources

78. The nominee responded that as an accounting officer, if appointed, she shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that public resources entrusted to her care are adequately protected, not misused or misappropriated.

5.11 On Public Finance (Chapter 12 of the Constitution)

79. Finally, the nominee was examined on matters of public finance, budgeting process, financial oversight institutions, key laws relating to public finance management and role of accounting officer and what are some of the principles of public finance enumerated in the Constitution. The nominee demonstrated a fairly good knowledge in public finance and management of public resources.

MIN. NO. EDUC/2021/062: CONFIRMATION OF MINUTES

Confirmation of minutes was deferred to the next sitting.

MIN. NO. EDUC/2021/063: PRE-VETTING OF PROF. FATUMA N. CHEGE, PHD
NOMINEE FOR THE POSITION OF PRINCIPAL
SECRETARY, STATE DEPARTMENT FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF CURRICULUM REFORMS

The Chairperson briefed the Committee as follows:

That the Departmental Committee on Education and Research on 23rd March, 2021 received the notification for appointment by the President of Prof. Fatuma N. Chege (PhD) to serve as Principal Secretary, State Department for Implementation of Curriculum Reforms. The nomination was made in exercise of the powers conferred on His Excellency the President by Article 155(3)(a) of the Constitution.

The Chairperson then welcomed the legal counsel to brief the Committee.

Brief by the Legal Counsel

That Section 6(9) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, Cap. 136 (hereinafter referred to as “the Act”) provides that “any person may, prior to the approval hearing, and by written statement on oath, provide the Clerk with evidence contesting the suitability of a candidate to hold the office to which the candidate has been nominated”.

That the Clerk of the National Assembly placed an advert in the local dailies on 25th March, 2021 inviting members of the public to submit any representations by written statement, on oath, contesting the suitability of the candidate for appointment as Principal Secretary for State Department for Implementation of Curriculum Reforms.

That by close of business on 1st April, 2021 the Committee had not received any submissions against the approval for appointment of the nominee and that the Committee may therefore conduct the approval hearing of the nominee as prescribed under the Act.

That Pursuant to the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approvals) Act, No. 33 of 2011 and Standing Order 45 of the National Assembly Standing Orders, the matter of the Approval by the National Assembly of Prof. Fatuma N. Chege (PhD) for appointment as Principal Secretary for State Department for Implementation of Curriculum Reforms was committed to the Departmental Committee on Education and Research for approval vetting.

Conduct of Vetting

The Committee deliberated on the approval hearing and resolved as follows:-

- a) That, in conducting the approval hearing, the Committee shall focus on the nominee’s suitability for the proposed appointment with regard to whether the nominee’s abilities, experience and qualities meet the needs of the body to which the nomination is being made.
- b) That, as at the time of the meeting, the Committee had not received any memoranda from the public in support or in contestation on the suitability of the nominee or otherwise for appointment;
- c) That, the nominee had submitted duly a filled Questionnaire in compliance with Section 6 (8) of the Act, curriculum vitae and other testimonials for consideration by the Committee.
- d) In conducting the approval hearing, the nominee shall be examined against the criteria set out in sections 6(7) and 7 of the Act, as well as the Questionnaire provided in the Schedule to the Act.
- e) The Committee shall also consider the procedure used to arrive at the nominee; and any constitutional or statutory requirements relating to the office in question.

The Committee therefore resolved to undertake the approval hearing on Thursday, 1st March, 2021 at 10.00 am as advertised by the Clerk of the National Assembly and communicated to the members of the public and the nominee.

Committee Resolution

The Committee resolved as follows:

1. To request the Speaker for permission to hold a physical sitting for the purpose of vetting.
2. To write to the Head of Public Service to provide Report of the Selection Panel on how the nominee was appointed for nomination.

MIN. NO. EDUC/2021/064: ANY OTHER BUSINESS

No other business arose.

MIN. NO. EDUC/2021/065: ADJOURNMENT

There being no other business, the meeting was adjourned at 12.30 pm. The next meeting will be held on 1st April 2021.

MIN. NO. EDUC/2021/068: VETTING OF PROF. FATUMA N. CHEGE, PHD NOMINEE FOR THE POSITION OF PRINCIPAL SECRETARY, STATE DEPARTMENT FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF CURRICULUM REFORMS

APPROVAL HEARING/VETTING OF THE NOMINEE

That nominee appeared before the Committee at 10.00 a.m. and was interviewed under oath and pursuant to the provisions of the Constitution, Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, 2011 and the Standing Orders of the National Assembly.

In her opening remarks the Chair welcomed the nominee for the approval hearing.

The Committee examined the nominee against the following criteria as set out in section 7 of the Act as follows:

- (i) any constitutional or statutory requirements relating to the office in question; and
- (ii) the suitability of the nominee for appointment proposed having regard to whether the nominee's abilities, experience and qualities meet the needs of the body to which nomination is being made.

The Nominee informed the Committee as follows:-

That she is a Kenyan citizen and holds a National Identity Card number 3214168, bearing the name Fatuma Nyaguthii Chege. She is a Kenyan citizen by birth and does not hold dual citizenship.

She was born on 4th June, 1955 in an informal settlement in Nyeri town in the then Nyeri district to a humble family of five. Her father was a Muslim. She later adopted the name Chege from her husband. She is a mother of two children.

Educational background

Prof. Fatuma Chege started her early learning education in 1961 at Nyeri Municipality Nursery School. She was educated at Consolata Mission School, Nyeri from 1962 to 1968 for Certificate of Primary Education and later joined Mount Kenya Secondary School in Nanyuki from 1969 to 1970 where she attained Kenya Junior Secondary Education.

After Kenya Junior Secondary Education, she temporarily discontinued her secondary education to pursue primary school teacher training course between 1971- 1974 at Kagumo Teachers College where she attained P2 Certificate of Teacher Education.

Her secondary education was made possible by well-wishers who believed in her and supported her morally and financially. Occasionally she had to drop out of school to do menial duties to support her parents and siblings.

She resumed her secondary education between 1975-1977 at International Correspondence Schools - ICS (USA) through correspondence and attained East African Certificate of Education, Second Division II as a privately registered student. She pursued a course in Higher Theory of Music & Lower Theory of Music between 1975-1978 at Royal Schools of Music, United Kingdom and attained Grades 4 & 5 respectively.

Throughout her education, she has been mainly educated through bursary and scholarships which enabled her to reach the apex of education.

She holds the following other qualifications attained from further education;

- (i) Diploma in Education from the University of Nairobi attained in 1981.
- (ii) Certificates in Final Theory of Music & Standard Pianoforte course (1981-1984) from Royal Schools of Music, United Kingdom.

Potential Conflict of Interest

She has no immediate associations that are likely to present potential conflict of interest when she assumes the position.

RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS POSED BY THE COMMITTEE ON SPECIFIC TOPICS

She also responded to several questions during the vetting as follows:

On how her qualifications and experience would make her suitable to head the State Department for Implementation of Curriculum Reforms, considering that she has mostly been a scholar with no previous training in curriculum development and implementation

While acknowledging that she has had no previous experience in curriculum development and implementation outside a learning institution, She maintained that having been a teacher, lecturer and university professor with wide experience in teaching, one of her core duties has been development and implementation of curriculum in the learning institutions. She added that, in her undergraduate studies she was trained in curriculum development which is a mandatory course for all teacher trainees.

She cited her rich educational background and practical experience in education sector as her asset if the House approves her for appointment. Having been the chair of the Taskforce on implementation of Competency Based Curriculum, the position provided her with insights on the challenges impeding smooth implementation of the new curriculum in its initial stages and ways of addressing the challenges.

She added that, if appointed as the Principal Secretary for the new State Department she will collaborate and create synergies with all stakeholders in the sector to ensure effective implementation of the new curriculum.

On mandate of the new State Department

She informed the Committee that in her view, the mandate of new State Department would be to facilitate implementation of the new curriculum and transform the education system to equip learners with knowledge, skills and attitudes in various fields of study to make them responsible citizens.

The State Department is further expected to address the challenges of transition at different levels of education, infrastructural challenges, learning and teaching resources as well as formulate legal and policy reforms necessary to facilitate successful implementation of new curriculum.

On overlap of the mandates of the new State Department and that of the Kenya Institute for Curriculum Development (KICD) and how the two should work together

She responded that the role of the new State Department will be to foster effective implementation of curriculum reforms. On the other hand, the role of KICD, being an institution within the Ministry of Education is to advise the Government on matters pertaining to curriculum development and to develop, review, approve programs, curricula and curriculum support materials. The two therefore have distinct but complementary mandates rather than overlap.

She added that if approved and appointed to the position she has been nominated to, she will embrace and encourage a cordial working relationship between the State Department and agencies within and outside the Department.

On key targets within the first three months in office

She submitted that if appointed to the position, she will endeavour to achieve the following targets within her first three months of appointment: -

- (i) Establish clear and functional structures for the State Department that are necessary to achieve its mandate.
- (ii) Increased sensitization and collaboration amongst all stakeholders critical to the success of implementation of the new curriculum.
- (iii) Demystify any misconceptions about CBC.
- (iv) Formulate policies and guidelines to support curriculum reforms, for instance a policy that will guide transition from one level to another.
- (v) Undertake audit of human resource and infrastructure to identify the gaps and means of addressing the gaps.

On her medium/long term goals for the State Department

She informed the Committee that if appointed to the position of Principal Secretary for State Department for Implementation of Curriculum Reforms, she will advocate for implementation of the recommendations of the Taskforce on Competency-Based Curriculum which she chaired, which amongst others include: -

- (i) Establishing a comprehensive monitoring and evaluation mechanism within the State Department that will facilitate tracking of implementation of the new curriculum and incorporate timely interventions where necessary;
- (ii) Strengthening of Standards and Quality Assurance function to ensure that Competency Based Curriculum is implemented with fidelity to its aspirations;
- (iii) Collaborating with all relevant institutions to enhance assessment and education programmes for all learners with special needs and disabilities, including the gifted and talented children;
- (iv) Working with the Teachers Service Commission to ensure that all teachers are fully trained and skilled on implementation of the Competency Based Curriculum;
- (v) Working with all stakeholders in the sector and government ministries to ensure that the new curriculum reforms are smoothly and systematically rolled out at all levels of education.

On the role of the new State Department in achieving Vision 2030 Development Agenda

She noted that implementation of the new curriculum reinforces Prof. Odhiambo's Task Force Report that recommended realignment of education system to the Constitution 2010, and Vision 2030.

That competency-based curriculum places more emphasis on science, innovation and technology as a path to achieve vision 2030 development agenda. It focuses on nurturing learners' potentials to produce learners with relevant competences and skills to accelerate realization of vision 2030.

She further added the competencies and skills acquired by learners will help in development of the country and improvement of quality of life beyond the year 2030.

On Leadership and Integrity in her previous and current public office

She informed the Committee that she has had along public service career including nearly 30 years teaching in the University and 2 years as Deputy Vice Chancellor. During this period of her duty, no integrity issues have ever been raised regarding her conduct in public office.

That she conducted duties of her office in a manner to maintain and uphold public confidence in the integrity of the office. That public trust and service has been her driving force.

In the performance of her duties, she stated that she has carried out the duties of any particular office she held with utmost professionalism, honesty and in an accountable manner.

Further as a public officer she has not used the office to unlawfully or wrongfully enrich herself or any other person.

On her Strategy to confront corruption

Citing that she is a beneficiary of free service from well-wishers, she submitted that if appointed to the position she has been nominated to, as a State officer she shall not use the office to unlawfully influence or acquire of property.

She will observe ethical and moral standards in the conduct of duties relating to the office and would not hold nor engage in activities that amount to abuse of office.

That she would report any acts of corruption and unethical behaviour to relevant authorities for investigation and she would be ready to give evidence in case of investigation.

On the Principle of Separation of powers and Responsiveness to Oversight Institutions

Noting that separation of powers is a principle to prevent different arms of government from encroaching into each other's jurisdiction, she observed that the principle helps to create checks and balances within the different arms.

If appointed she will cultivate a cordial working relationship with oversight institutions such as Parliament, the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission (EACC), the office of the Auditor General amongst others and would respect and honour parliamentary invitations and provide any information as may be required.

On Potential Conflict of Interest

The nominee reiterated that she does not foresee any personal or financial arrangements that are likely to present potential conflicts of interest if and when she assumes the position she has been nominated to.

To her serving in a public office would be an opportunity to serve the country to bring transformation and give back to the society, herself being a product charitable service.

On Management of Public Resources

She responded that as an accounting officer, if appointed, she shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that public resources entrusted to her care are adequately protected, not misused or misappropriated.

On Public Finance (Chapter 12 of the Constitution)

Finally, she was examined on matters of public finance, budgeting process, financial oversight institutions, key laws relating to public finance management and role of accounting officer and what are some of the principles of public finance enumerated in the Constitution. She demonstrated a fairly good knowledge in public finance and management of public resources.

Committee Resolution

The Committee resolved to undertake a retreat to write and adopt report on vetting of the nominee

Dear Hon Muturi,

NOMINATION OF THE PRINCIPAL SECRETARY, STATE DEPARTMENT FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF CURRICULUM REFORMS

We refer to the above subject matter.

In recognition of the State's solemn duty to enhance the individual and collective contributions of the citizenry, the Administration has introduced far-reaching reforms within the Education Sector; including the introduction of a new curriculum.

To ensure that these noble goals are achieved, and to foster the effective implementation and institutionalization of the curriculum reforms; His Excellency the President has established the State Department for Implementation of Curriculum Reforms as a new State Department within the Ministry of Education. The newly established State Department is expected to drive the implementation and institutionalization of curriculum reforms, thereby ensuring that every child in Kenya has access to the very best opportunities that our nation can secure for them.

In view of the foregoing and in full discharge of the Constitutional and Statutory requirements, we humbly convey to the National Assembly for its consideration and approval His Excellency the President's Nominee for appointment to the position of Principal Secretary, State Department for Implementation of Curriculum Reforms namely; Prof. Fatuma N. Chege (PhD).

Enclosed herewith is the Nominees' Curriculum Vitae to aid the August House in its consideration and approval processes.

28. Have you ever been charged in a court or law in the last three years? If so, specify the nature of the charge, where the matter is ongoing, the present status of the matter, or where the matter is concluded, the judgment of the court, or otherwise, how the case was concluded.

Yes, as an interested party in my employment as DVC (Administration), Kenyatta University.

Nature of the case: UASU (KU Chapter), alleged that:

- 1) That the KU Council erred by interviewing me and including my name as the top performing candidate above all other contenders
- 2) That the KU Council erred in submitting my name to the CS Education for appointment without considering the following that:
- 3) Allegedly I was not qualified to hold an office where I would be part of Management decision-making
- 4) Allegedly, I belong to an ethnic community that dominates Management positions in KU
- 5) Allegedly, I belong to a School that is over-represented in KU

UASU Prayers: That the intention to appoint me be stopped

Status: There was no intention to be stopped, so the matter is still pending in court 3 years down the line with UASU not possibly knowing what to do with it.

- My response to the Honourable Court was that the CS Education had already appointed me as DVC and I was already in office serving long before UASU went to court
 - o That as a Kenyan I had the right to apply and be considered for the job without discrimination
 - o I was well qualified candidate to be interviewed as the CV submitted to court demonstrated
 - o I came to learn that my interview scored were above those of my competitors

Conclusion of case: I believe I have no case to answer because clearly UASU went to court and filed a defective case against the KU Council, the KU Vice Chancellor as Respondents and Prof. Fatuma Chege as Interested Party. I have nothing to fear on this issues

29. Have you ever been adversely mentioned in an investigatory report of Parliament or any other Commission of inquiry in the last three years?

I have never been mentioned adversely in any way by parliament or other commissions of inquiry

30. Have you any objection to the making of enquiries with your present employer/referees in the course of consideration of your nomination?

I have no objection whatsoever on any enquiries with my employer/referees regarding my employment or my conduct at any time

- (iii) Capacity to work in a multi-cultural and multi-ethnic environment with respect to diversity;
- (iv) Excellent organizational, interpersonal and communication skills; and
- (v) Capacity and resilience to work under pressure to meet strict deadlines.

Further, the advert spelt out the duties and responsibilities of the position of Principal Secretary as follows:

- (i) Implementing government policies and the Strategic Plan of the State Department;

SECRET

- (ii) Facilitating the achievement of the goals and objectives of the Government and Inter-governmental programs and projects;
- (iii) Developing and implementing an effective performance management system;
- (iv) Ensuring efficient and effective utilization of financial, human and other resources;
- (v) Ensuring preparation and submission of accurate statutory report; and
- (vi) Promoting values and principles spelt out in Articles 10 and 232 of the Constitution in the management of the affairs of the State Department.

In-keeping with best practice, the advert contained terms of service, application procedure the need for submission of curriculum vitae, and testimonials among other supporting documents including evidence of citizenship. Clearance from the following Agencies was underscored:

- Kenya Revenue Authority;
- Higher Education Loans Board;
- Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission; and
- Directorate of Criminal Investigation.

At closure of the advert on 1st September, 2017, a total of Two Thousand One Hundred and ninety (2,190) applications were received, thereby constituting a data-base of applicants for the position of Principal Secretary. Following your request therefore, the Commission has processed and assessed the suitability of potential candidates in the data-base in possession of expertise and experience in Education matters particularly in Curriculum Development. Consequently, the Commission recommends the underlisted persons for consideration for nomination as Principal Secretary by His Excellency the President:

1. Prof. Fatuma Nyaguthii Chege, PhD.;
2. Mr. Abdi Habat Sheikh; and
3. Ms Cheron Maria Kipkeni, HSC.
